RULES TO BE TAUGHT TO SUPPORT SPELLING IN YEAR 6

- In most cases:
- the r is doubled if the ~fer is still stressed when the ending is added e.g. referring, referred, referral. The r is not doubled if the ~fer is no longer stressed e.g. reference, referee, preference, transference;
 - the 'i before e except after c' rule applies to words where the sound spelt by ei is 'ee' e.g. deceive, conceive, receive, perceive, ceiling etc;
 - if the root words ends in ~ce the 'sh' sound is usually spelt as ~c e.g. vice-vicious, grace-gracious, space-spacious;
 - use ~cial after a vowel letter and ~tial after a consonant letter e.g. official, special, partial, essential;
 - when spelling homophones such as practice/practise, device/devise, licence/license, nouns end in ~ce and verbs end in ~se.

WRITING SKILLS

Grammar

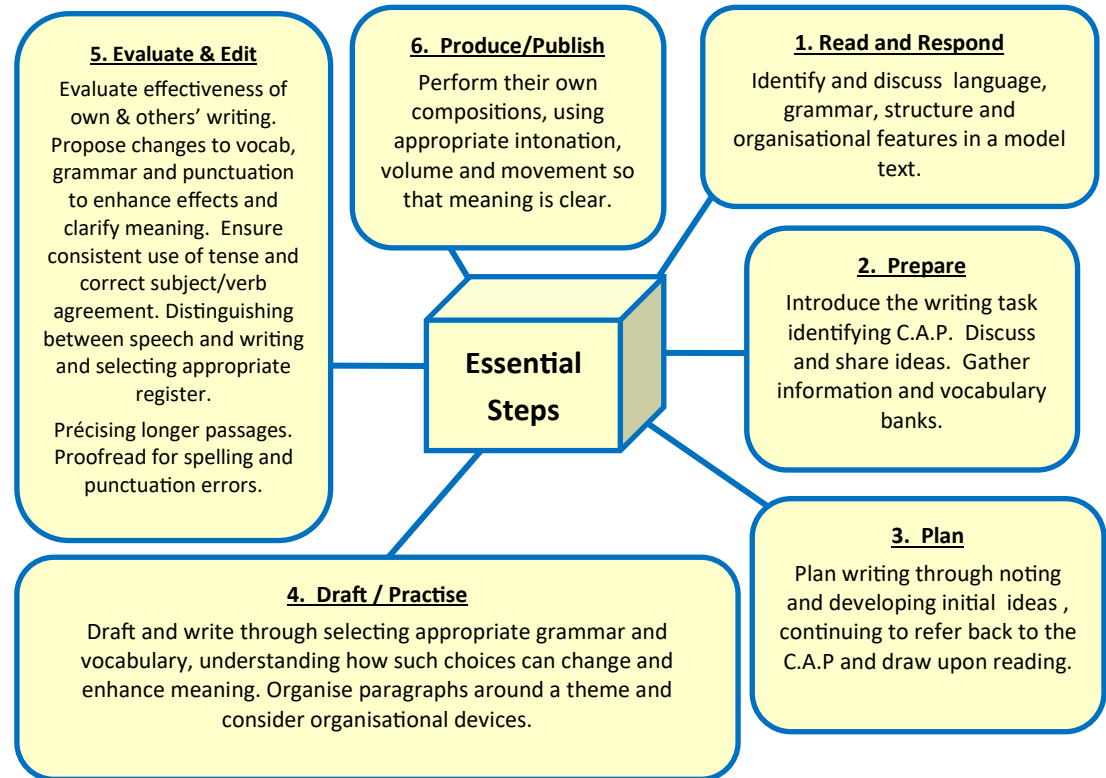

Children should be taught to:

- use the passive voice to affect the presentation of information in a sentence.
- Extend sentence structures and aid cohesion through:
 - linking ideas across paragraphs using a wider range of cohesive devices: repetition of a word or phrase, grammatical connections (for example, use of adverbials such as on the other hand, in contrast), ellipsis and layout devices such as headings, columns, bullets etc.;
 - convert nouns or adjectives into verbs using suffixes.
 - Extend sentence structures and aid cohesion through:
 - linking ideas across paragraphs using adverbials of time, place and number;
 - use of tense to reference back or ahead, e.g. he had seen her before;
 - use of relative clauses beginning with who, which, where, whose, that or an omitted relative pronoun.
 - Indicating degrees of possibility using adverbs or modal verbs.

Punctuation

- use of a semi-colon, colon and dash to mark the boundary between independent clauses;
- use of the colon to introduce a list and use of semi-colons within lists;
- use of hyphens to avoid ambiguity e.g. recover versus re-cover;
- use of brackets, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis.

WRITING PROCESS

WRITING PURPOSE

Children should know that there are different purposes for writing. In Year 6 children should focus on all four of these. They should be given opportunity to read and write texts which inform, entertain, persuade or discuss.

Children should be taught the importance of context, audience and purpose through:

- showing awareness of language and grammar typical of informal speech and that appropriate for formal speech and writing;
- developing use of language and selecting word choices for clarity, effect on reader and/or context;
- selecting an appropriately formal or informal tone through use of taught language and grammar, see table-

Formal	Informal
Use of the subjunctive or passive form	Question Tags
Context specific vocabulary	Direct Addresses
Avoid contracted form	Vernacular Language
Perfect Tense	Contracted Form

APPLY IT

YEAR 6

Children should be taught to write effectively by selecting grammar and vocabulary appropriate to the context, audience and purpose.

TO ENTERTAIN

STORY WRITING

Children should be taught to:

Structure & Organisation

- create a title which hints at the theme;
- include a beginning which introduces the character, setting, atmosphere - this may also take the form of a flashback/flash-forward;
- include a build up which hints at what is going to happen next;
- include a dilemma which introduces the problem;
- include a resolution where the problem is solved;
- include an ending which details the characters' feelings and ties together the threads of detail;
- organise writing into paragraphs;
- use a range of cohesive devices to aid flow;

Grammatical features

- select the correct tense and apply consistently (may vary);
- use a wide range of conjunctions to express, time, place and manner in varying positions;
- consistently maintain first or third person (may use second person to address the reader);
- use fronted adverbials to detail time/place;
- use expanded noun phrases to add detail;
- use multi-clause sentences for detail and single clause for effect;
- use direct speech/reported speech to advance the action and/or aid characterisation;

Language features

- use pronouns to avoid repetition and refer back;
- select vocabulary that matches the level of formality required.

POETRY

Children should be taught to: explore and experience a range of poetry. Poetry should be given a voice and not just stay on the page. To bring poetry to life, pupils should be taught to perform their poems to an audience.

They should be given the opportunity to plan, write and perform poetry.

Imagery

Children should be taught to:

- use figurative language to describe the subject;
- draw upon all senses to create a sensory experience for the reader including onomatopoeia;
- use precise and emotive vocabulary;
- choose whether to use rhyme.

An example of a poem which uses imagery is William Wordsworth's classic 1804 poem -

*I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.*

Pupils should also experience a range of poetry through the reading curriculum.

DESCRIPTION

Children should be taught to:

Structure & Organisation

- introduce the character, setting or object to the reader;
- describe unusual and distinctive features;

Grammatical features

- use the third person;
- use the tense consistently (past or present);
- use a wide range of conjunctions to link ideas;
- use subordinate clauses, in varied positions, to add detail and context;
- use fronted adverbials to detail time/place;
- use pronouns to refer back to subject/object;

Language features

- use increasingly precise adjectives, adverbs and prepositions to create atmosphere and for effect.
- use figurative language to add detail and description;
- use show not tell techniques, encouraging the reader to make inferences;
